

CROMPTON PARKINSON LTD.

This company operated two factories, one at Guisely and one at Doncaster. They made only Ball Mk 7 and AP Mk 1 from 1940 to 1944. Originally the company was not involved in the production of ammunition but under the necessity of war it was selected as a part of the war effort.

The filling station was Doncaster for all the production of both stations.

