

RUDGE WHITWORTH

The Rudge Whitworth Cycle Company was one of the many companies pressed into service by the British Government during WWI to make ammunition for the voracious appetite of the Western front. They produced ball ammunition from 1915 to 1918.

