

DEFENCE INDUSTRIES

This factory was introduced in 1942 and continued in production until 1945 and it was located at Brownsburg, Verdun, Quebec.

The headstamps reflect the British influence by using the letter Z to indicate a nitrocellulose loading.

L to R. Mk IV Z Tracer, D. I. Tracer, D.I. Tracer and D.I. Tracer.

