

.44 THUER

This cartridge is a transitional one being introduced just when centrefire was being perfected and great battles were being fought over Colts patents and Smith & Wesson counter-claims. It was used in percussion firearms that had been converted to cartridge firearms around 1868. They were not a long used cartridge being overtaken by leaps in technology.

