

.41 SHORT COLT SINGLE ACTION

Introduced around 1872 for the then new Colt New Line Single Action revolvers this cartridge is slightly thicker in the rim. This is because the single action firearm has more space behind the cylinder. Later cartridges in the .41 calibre for use in double actions had thinner rims. It was in production until the 1920s.

