

.380 LONG REVOLVER CENTREFIRE

This cartridge was originally intended for use in that loose group of firearms termed “Rook and Rabbit”. It was developed around 1870/80 and was eventually applied to revolvers as attested by the inclusion in an Eley catalogue of 1898 showing its use as a revolver cartridge.

